Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that SERENÍSSIMA CASA REAL SEFARAD y DUCADO DE LUCENA supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles, and will make a clear Statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact in the following way(s):

Social priorities of the Most Serene Royal House Sefarad and Duchy of Lucena are: A) Collaborate with the cultural, historical and tradition, literature, the arts, letters and humanities in general. B) Promote lectures and campaigns against violence. C) Celebrating the great dates, locations and the universal in order to integrate society around a common interest. D) Hold meetings and studies of social interest issues that concern contemporary society in order to express an opinion on them. E) To promote social events to raise funds in order to maintain the work and social action projects we undertake voluntarily. F) Promoting Ethics, peace, citizenship, human rights and environmental protection, and other universal values through our campaigns or in partnership with entities that have the same goals.

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission Of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's efforts to support the implementation of the ten principles and to engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Sincerely yours,

Sovereign Grand Master

H.R.I.H Grand Prince Magnus Augustus I

"In the Civil Life" The Prince Don Cláudio Márcio Lucena da Silva
