

YOUTH ASSEMBLY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Dated: October 05, 2015

The Secretary-General
United Nations
New York, NY 10017
USA

Dear Sir,

Youth Assembly for Human Rights (YAHR) Pakistan is delighted to support the ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact with deference to human rights, labor, environment and anticorruption. We will make a clear statement of this obligation to our stakeholders and the youth of Pakistan.

We also word of honor to participate in and connect with the United Nations Global Compact in the following ways; propose and implement partnerships on corporate sustainability and connect with other stakeholders, also engage with Global Compact Local Networks to spreading the culture of the ten principles of the United Nation Global Compact among young people and encourage the civil society to contribute in these principles.

We recognize that a key obligation for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's work to support the implementation of the ten principles and to connect with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Youth Assembly for Human Rights (YAHR) is a registered human rights organization and biggest Human Rights Education (HRE) network in Pakistan, working together with Governments, United Nations and other National and International institutions, civil society organizations, Schools and Colleges, Weekly and Monthly news peppers to promote the Human Rights Education (HRE) throughout the country.

Yours Sincerely,

Babar Hussain
